

Pilates

at Shallyn's Physical Therapy and Wellness Services

Mat and Reformer Certified since 2000

What it is: low impact movement in functional range of motion focusing on core stability with every exercise; incorporates breathing, relaxation, concentration, control, fluidity, strength and flexibility. Used to: decrease pain, increase movement, regain specific motion control, improve dynamic core stability for daily activities and recreational activity.